

Large Scale Reduced Cost Level 2/ServSafe Training Course Registration

The Erie County Health Department is offering a reduced cost large scale training event to assist operators in complying with the State of Ohio's newly required Level 2 Food Protection training. This event is limited to 140 registrants. To take advantage of the cost savings it is recommended interested parties register immediately.

ServSafe is a comprehensive training course that teaches basic and advanced concepts in food safety and protection. Both days must be attended in their entirety for a total of 16 hours. Successful completion of this course meets the State's requirements for Level 2 Food Protection certification.

Applicants must pick up their course books from the health department and read them before the class

Since this will be such a large class; personal attention to each participant will not be as likely as it is in the regular courses offered at the Health Department. This large scale course requires that the participants come prepared. This particular course has a faster pace and individual questions cannot be addressed as they are in the smaller courses held at the health department. Please keep this in mind before registering and attending this course.

Applicants must pick up their course books from the health department and read them before the class

This course will be conducted at:

EHOVE Career Center (Please do not contact EHOVE with questions)
316 W. Mason Road
Milan, OH 44846
March 27th & 28th 2017

Course times will be 9:00AM-5:00PM for both days.
We will work through lunch.
Lunches will be provided both days.

Please complete this form and return it with payment to the Health Department two weeks prior to the course.

The cost of the course is $100.00 per registrant and is non-refundable. Please make checks payable to:

Erie County Health Department
420 Superior Street
Sandusky, OH 44870

The Erie County Health Department does not accept personal checks.
